Report on "Ramayan se Sikhe Management" Session

Date: April 3, 2023

Venue :Biyani Girls B.Ed College, Jaipur

Introduction:

Biyani Girls B.Ed College organized a unique session titled "Ramayan se Sikhe Management" on April 3, 2023, featuring Dr. Bharti Sharma as the keynote speaker. The session aimed to draw parallels between the timeless wisdom of the Ramayana, an ancient Indian epic, and contemporary management principles. Through insightful analysis and interpretation, the session explored valuable lessons in leadership, ethics, teamwork, and decision-making derived from the epic narrative.

Session Highlights:

Introduction to the Ramayana: The session commenced with an introduction to the Ramayana, one of the most revered and influential texts in Indian mythology. Dr. Bharti Sharma provided an overview of the epic's storyline, characters, and key themes, setting the stage for exploring its relevance to management concepts and practices.

Leadership Lessons: Dr. Bharti Sharma elucidated leadership lessons derived from the characters of Lord Rama, Sita, Hanuman, and other protagonists in the Ramayana. Participants learned about the qualities of an ideal leader, including integrity, courage, resilience, empathy, and strategic vision, as exemplified by the epic heroes.

Teamwork and Collaboration: The session highlighted the importance of teamwork and collaboration through the examples of Lord Rama's army, the Vanara Sena (Monkey Army), and their collective efforts to overcome challenges and achieve common goals. Participants gained insights into effective team dynamics, communication strategies, and synergy in accomplishing tasks.

Ethical Decision-Making: Dr. Bharti Sharma discussed ethical dilemmas faced by the characters in the Ramayana and their implications for decision-making in modern management contexts. Participants explored the concepts of dharma (duty), righteousness, and ethical conduct, emphasizing the significance of moral integrity and ethical leadership in organizational settings.

Application to Contemporary Management: The session concluded with a discussion on applying the principles and teachings of the Ramayana to contemporary management practices. Dr. Bharti Sharma encouraged participants to reflect on how the insights gained from the epic narrative could inform their approach to leadership, conflict resolution, innovation, and organizational culture.

Outcome and Impact:

The session on "Ramayan se Sikhe Management" led by Dr. Bharti Sharma at Biyani Girls B.Ed College received a positive response from participants, comprising students, faculty, and staff. Attendees gained a deeper appreciation for the timeless wisdom embedded in the Ramayana and its relevance to modern management philosophy and practices.

The session fostered critical thinking, self-reflection, and dialogue among participants, encouraging them to draw parallels between ancient wisdom and contemporary challenges in organizational settings. Participants expressed enthusiasm for applying the insights gained from the session to their academic pursuits, professional endeavors, and personal development journeys.
