Report on Oorja Orientation Program

Date: 29th to 31st August 2019

Venue: Biyani Girls B.Ed College

Coordinator: Ms. Pushpa Kumawat

Introduction:

The Oorja Orientation Program held at Biyani Girls B.Ed College from 29th to 31st August 2019 was a significant event aimed at empowering and preparing the participating students for their academic journey. The program was organized under the guidance of the college coordinator, Ms. Pushpa Kumawat, with the distinguished presence of the guest speaker, Dr. Sanjay Biyani.

Day 1 (29th August 2019):

The program commenced with a warm welcome by Ms. Pushpa Kumawat, highlighting the importance of the orientation in shaping the academic and personal development of the students. The day included informative sessions on the college's history, infrastructure, and academic policies. Students were introduced to the faculty members and the support staff, fostering a sense of community.

A highlight of the day was Dr. Sanjay Biyani's insightful keynote address on the evolving landscape of education and the role of teachers in shaping the future. His vast experience and engaging presentation set a positive tone for the entire program.

Day 2 (30th August 2019):

The second day focused on academic expectations, curriculum details, and effective teaching methodologies. Workshops and interactive sessions were conducted by experienced faculty members, providing practical insights into the teaching profession. The program emphasized the importance of student-centric learning and the integration of technology in education.

Dr. Sanjay Biyani conducted a workshop on leadership skills and motivation, inspiring the aspiring educators to become catalysts for positive change in the lives of their future students. The day concluded with a networking session, allowing students to interact with faculty members and peers, fostering a sense of camaraderie.

Day 3 (31st August 2019):

Report on Children's day celebration program

Date: 14 November 2019

Venue: Biyani Girls B.Ed College

Introduction :

Children's day celebration was organized in Utsav auditorium by the teachers and student of Biyani Girls B.ED Colleges.

Event highlights :

Children's day was celebrated with full enthusiasm in college campus. The day signifies the importance of increasing awareness about child's rights and education. The program started with a prayer by the teachers. It was followed by various cultural programs. The students were given refreshments after the events.

Objectives :

Children's Day is celebrated in India to raise awareness about the rights, education, and welfare of children. It is celebrated on 14 November every year on the birthday of the first prime minister of India Jawaharlal Nehru, who was known to have been fond of children.

Conclusion : As Pundit Jawaharlal Nehru said, "The children of today will make the India of tomorrow. The way we bring them up will determine the future of the country." Children's day is a beautiful occasion to remember and celebrate the famous thoughts of Chacha Nehru. Celebration on children's day is a great way to make both children and adults aware that children are the true future of the country.

Report on lohri Celebration

Date: 13 January 2020

Venue: Biyani girls B.Ed college

Introduction:

On January 13, 2020, Biyani Girls B.Ed. College Innogral witnessed a delightful celebration of the Lohri festival. Dr. Sanjay Biyani, the coordinator, along with the active involvement of Ms. Pushpa Kumawat and the entire B.Ed. faculty and students, organized the event to commemorate this auspicious occasion.

Event Highlights:

The Lohri celebration at Biyani Girls B.Ed. College Innogral was a testament to the cultural richness and unity of the institution. Here are some of the highlights:

1. Traditional Bonfire: The event commenced with the lighting of the traditional bonfire, around which students and faculty gathered to offer prayers and seek blessings. The bonfire symbolized the spirit of warmth, togetherness, and prosperity.
2. Folk Music and Dance: The air was filled with the melodious tunes of folk music as students performed traditional dances like Gidda and Bhangra. These vibrant performances added to the festive ambiance and brought joy to all in attendance.
3. Traditional Delicacies: The celebration also featured a delectable spread of traditional Lohri delicacies, including rewri, gajak, and popcorn. Students and faculty relished these treats while sharing stories and laughter, fostering a sense of camaraderie and joy.

4. Cultural Activities: Various cultural activities, including folk games and quizzes related to Lohri traditions, were organized to engage and entertain the participants. These activities encouraged active participation and helped in preserving and promoting cultural heritage.

5. Community Bonding: The Lohri celebration served as a platform for fostering community bonding and unity among students and faculty. Regardless of cultural backgrounds, everyone came together to celebrate and share in the joy of the festival, strengthening the bonds of friendship and mutual respect.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, the Lohri celebration at Biyani Girls B.Ed. College Innogral, under the guidance of Dr. Sanjay Biyani and with the active involvement of Ms. Pushpa Kumawat and the entire B.Ed. faculty and students, was a grand success. It exemplified the institution's commitment to promoting cultural diversity, unity, and inclusivity. As the echoes of laughter and music faded away, the memories of this joyous occasion would remain etched in the hearts of all who participated, serving as a reminder of the importance of celebrating and preserving our cultural heritage.

Report on SUPW Camp

Date: January 16 to 18, 2020

Venue: Biyani Girls B.Ed. College, Jaipur

Coordinator: Sunita Sharma

Inaugural Session Guest: Dr. Sanjay Biyani

Introduction: From January 16 to 18, 2020, Biyani Girls B.Ed. College in Jaipur hosted a Socially Useful Productive Work (SUPW) Camp, aimed at fostering practical skills, community engagement, and a sense of responsibility among the students. The event was organized under the supervision of Ms. Sunita Sharma, with the inaugural session graced by the presence of Dr. Sanjay Biyani, a distinguished guest.

Activities:

Inaugural Session: The SUPW Camp commenced with an inaugural session featuring Dr. Sanjay Biyani as the guest speaker. Dr. Biyani shared inspiring thoughts on the importance of community service, skill development, and the role of students in contributing to society.

Skill-based Workshops: Various skill-based workshops were conducted during the camp, covering a range of activities such as handicrafts, environmental sustainability, and health awareness. Students actively participated in these sessions, honing their practical skills and gaining valuable knowledge.

Community Outreach: A significant aspect of the SUPW Camp was community outreach. Students engaged in activities that benefited the local community, including cleanliness drives, awareness campaigns, and initiatives aimed at supporting underprivileged individuals.

Cultural Evening: To foster a sense of camaraderie and relaxation, a cultural evening was organized. Students showcased their talents through performances, fostering a positive and enjoyable atmosphere.

Report on Debate on "Save Girl Child" by B.Ed. and M.Ed. Students

Date: January 28, 2020

Venue: Biyani Girls B.Ed. College, Jaipur

Introduction:

Biyani Girls B.Ed. College organized a thought-provoking and engaging debate on the crucial topic of "Save Girl Child" on January 28, 2020. The event brought together B.Ed. and M.Ed. students to express their perspectives and contribute to the ongoing dialogue on gender equality and female empowerment.

Event Highlights:

1. Diverse Participation:

The debate witnessed active participation from both B.Ed. and M.Ed. students, showcasing a diversity of perspectives and insights on the topic. Students from different academic levels brought unique viewpoints to the discussion.

2. Varied Topics Explored:

Participants explored a range of related topics, including gender bias, female education, female foeticide, and societal perceptions of the girl child. The diversity of subjects allowed for a comprehensive examination of the challenges and solutions associated with saving the girl child.

3. Format of the Debate:

The debate was structured to include multiple rounds, including opening statements, individual speeches, and a question-and-answer session. This format

PRINCIPAL
BIYANI GIRLS B.ED. COLLEGE
SEC.-3, VIDHYADHAR NAGAR, JAIPUR

allowed for a thorough exploration of the various facets of the "Save Girl Child" theme.

4. Research and Analysis:

Students demonstrated their research and analytical skills by presenting well-supported arguments. They drew on statistics, case studies, and real-life examples to strengthen their positions, fostering a deep and informed conversation.

5. Expressive Communication:

Effective communication skills were on display as participants articulated their thoughts persuasively and passionately. The eloquence of the speakers contributed to the impact of the debate.

6. Judicious Evaluation:

A panel of judges, comprised of faculty members or external experts, evaluated the participants based on criteria such as content, delivery, and overall impact. This ensured a fair and constructive assessment of each participant's performance.

7. Audience Engagement:

The audience, consisting of students, faculty, and possibly external guests, actively engaged in the debate. Questions and comments from the audience added depth to the discussion and fostered a sense of collective responsibility for addressing the issues at hand.

Conclusion:

The "Save Girl Child" debate at Biyani Girls B.Ed. College, coordinated by Ms. Sunita Kumari Sharma, was a resounding success. The event not only provided a platform for students to express their opinions on a critical societal issue but also encouraged critical thinking, research, and effective communication skills. The college's commitment to addressing important social topics through such engaging events was evident, and

Report on Holi phaag celebration

Date: 8 march 2020

Venue: Biyani girls B.Ed college

Introduction:

On March 8, 2020, Biyani Girls B.Ed. College Innogral witnessed a vibrant and joyous celebration of the Holi Phaag festival. Organized under the guidance of Dr. Rajiv Biyani, the coordinator, and with the active involvement of Mrs. Pushpa Kumawat, along with the entire B.Ed. faculty and students, the event promised to be a memorable occasion for all involved.

Event Highlights:

The Holi Phaag celebration at Biyani Girls B.Ed. College Innogral was a testament to the rich cultural heritage and inclusivity of the institution. Here are some of the highlights:

1. Colorful Revelry: The campus was adorned with vibrant colors, setting the stage for a lively and spirited celebration. Students and faculty alike came together to partake in the festivities, spreading joy and cheer with every splash of color.
2. Cultural Performances: The event featured a series of cultural performances, including traditional folk dances and songs that captured the essence of Holi Phaag. Students showcased their talent and enthusiasm, adding to the festive atmosphere.
3. Traditional Rituals: The celebration also included the observance of traditional Holi Phaag rituals, such as the lighting of the Holika bonfire and the smearing of colors. These rituals served as a reminder of the significance of the festival and its cultural importance.

4. Community Bonding: Beyond just a festival, the Holi Phaag celebration served as a platform for fostering community bonding and camaraderie. Students and faculty from diverse backgrounds came together to celebrate their shared heritage, strengthening the bonds of friendship and unity.

5. Inclusive Participation: The event was inclusive and welcoming to all, regardless of caste, creed, or background. It provided an opportunity for everyone to come together and celebrate in a spirit of harmony and mutual respect.

Conclusion:

In conclusion, the Holi Phaag celebration at Biyani Girls B.Ed. College Innogral was a resounding success, thanks to the meticulous planning and enthusiastic participation of Dr. Rajiv Biyani, Mrs. Pushpa Kumawat, and everyone involved. It not only showcased the cultural richness of the institution but also served as a reminder of the values of unity, inclusivity, and community spirit. As the colors faded and the festivities came to a close, the memories of this joyous occasion would surely linger on, serving as a source of inspiration and fond remembrance for years to come.
